AMERICA'S CHALLENGE FOR DAVIS CUP UP TO M'LOUGHLIN

California Player Considered Keystone of Team and Trip Depends on His Plans—United States Has Challenged But It Is Not Certain that a Team Will Go to Australia.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Despite the fact that the United States Lawn Tennis Association has sent a challenge to Australasia for a match next winter for the Dwight F. Davis international trophy, it is still far from certain as to whether or not the team will be sent by this country. This will not be definitely decided upon until W. A. Larned, captain of this year's team, and M. E. McLoughlin, the Pacific Coast star, have been consulted. The challenge was sent by President Wren on Saturday, on account of the rules which govern the competition and that a team may be sent should such a step be deemed advisable later.

A member of the executive committee of the association says that the sending of a team again next year will rest almost entirely on whether M. E. McLoughlin will be willing to make the trip again so soon. McLoughlin has now made two of these trips in the past three years, and it is considered possible that he may not feel able to spend so much time in this way again this year. Without him this member of the committee felt that it would be useless to send an American team.

This member further expressed the view that there were a number of young players in this country who were developing very fast and that 1912 would probably find the United States in better shape to send a winning team than next winter, and while the association is determined to challenge for the cup until it is brought back to this country, he feels that a year's wait would do no harm, especially as England is practically sure to send a team next winter.

"This matter will be gone over thoroughly at the next meeting of the executive committee in this city next month, and it is expected that some definite action will be taken at that time. Dates for tournaments of 1912 will also be announced at that time."

Interscholastic Title At Stake

SOME STAR ATHLETES OF KAMEHAMEHA
The Kam track team of last year. Most of the athletes in the picture are still at school and will be seen in action this afternoon. Reading from left to right, the men are: Top row—Richard Muller, Gregory Kaonohi, Ben Pahia, Charles Hoses, William Waialeale. Second row—Joseph Kaui, Aione Aiau, William Apau, Frank Kalani, Harold Godfrey (captain), Sam Lulihau, Walter Kamaipili, Alex Kalanihewa. Bottom row—Joseph Amos, Sam Hussey, Ed Noah, George Manoha, Don Hipa, George Benjamin. Pahia, Hoses, Waialeale, Kaui and Lulihau are no longer students. Spencer, Jones and Brandt, who are now on the team, do not appear in the picture.

MISS FLORENCE LEE WINS BOWLING PRIZE ON Y. M. C. A. ALLEYS

Scores Were Low But Interest Ran High and There Is Talk of Weekly "Ladies' Night"

The wood didn't fall very fast at the "Y" alleys last night, when the ladies were in command, but this isn't surprising, when it is considered that the fair rollers have had absolutely no opportunities to practice, and that many of them were playing the game for the first time, in cities where there are public alleys, ten pins is popular with the ladies, but here conditions are somewhat different, and unless some arrangement is made for a weekly "ladies' night," there is little chance that the good work started last night will be continued.

Miss Florence Lee won the cup offered for high score, with 104, other scores being as follows:

Miss Winne, 101; Mrs. W. O. Franklin, 89; Miss Jones, 87; Miss Kalina, 78; Miss Dwight, 87; Miss A. Grote, 57; Miss J. Grote, 52; Miss Olson, 74; Miss de la Nux, 49; Miss C. James, 51; Miss Mackles, 60; Miss Cummings, 79; Mrs. Pratt, 49; Mrs. de la Nux, 49; Miss James, 56; Miss Pratt, 56; Miss Harris, 31; Miss Craig, 56; Miss Starrett, 51; Mrs. Chentham, 71; Miss Sorle, 39; Mrs. F. W. Wister, 35; Miss D. Wister, 50; Miss Halsey, 78; Miss Ellsworth, 44; Miss McChesney, 56; Mrs. Roberts, 60; Miss Folsom, 67; Miss Larrabee, 66; Miss Keating, 42; Miss Gonzales, 70; Mrs. Hunt, 40; Miss Shaw, 61.

CRITICS PREDICT SUCCESS FOR DUKE

Eastern Writers Pick Him to Win 50 and 100 Yard Olympic Events.

Even before he won the national 100-yard championship and the special hundred at New York, Eastern critics were calling Duke Kahanamoku the most swimmer in the world, and freely predicting that he will win the sprints at Stockholm.

The following from an Eastern paper gives a fuller account of what Duke did in his early races than has hitherto appeared in local papers:

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 28.—Students of the University of Pennsylvania had the privilege yesterday afternoon of seeing Duke Kahanamoku, who will probably win the 50 and 100-yard swims in the Olympic games at Stockholm, work out in the Weighman hall pool. Kahanamoku is a full-blooded Hawaiian, who has created a stir in American swimming circles since February 24, when he won both the 50 and 100-yard events in the tryout for the Olympic games held at the Pittsburgh Athletic Club. He is at present staying in Philadelphia for a few days in order to get some pointers from George Kistler, coach of Penn's swimming team.

Kahanamoku stands 6 feet 2 inches in height and carries 185 pounds of muscle. He is 21 years of age and has practically lived in the water from infancy.

To give an example of his prowess Kahanamoku raced 100 yards with John K. Shryock, who recently broke the intercollegiate record for that distance, lowering it from 60 seconds to 58 4-5, in the Yale pool. Kahanamoku took the lead from the crack of Kistler's pistol, and easily held it. Shryock is considered to be a pastmaster at the game, but he was completely outclassed. The race had the appearance of an encounter between a long-legged man and a boy. Shryock took at least three strokes to the Hawaiian's eight. Kahanamoku finished about 12 feet in front of the Red and Blue swimmer, having covered the distance in 57 1-5 seconds.

What the Hawaiian is most anxious to develop is his ability to turn in the tank. He loses every time he has to reverse, and Kistler spent 10 minutes in pointing out his faults. At the end of that time he showed that he had thoroughly caught the idea. At Shryock's request the Kahanamoku raced him one length, with the result that the Hawaiian distanced Penn's champion by 5 feet, doing the 100 feet in a trifle over 14 1-5 seconds, while the record in the Weighman hall tank is 16.

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR HANDS-AROUND CLUB

Every member of the Hands-Around-Pacific Club and his wife is invited to attend the Hands-Around service tomorrow morning at First M. E. church, Beretania street, opposite Thomas Square. The Rev. Robert E. Smith will tell of the aims and objects of the organization that is bringing together the people of the Pacific in a common cause. This will give the ladies an opportunity of learning something about the organization to which the men of their families belong.

THE WAILANA HOTEL

The Levers Beach property at Wai-kiki, formerly known as the "Hau Tree," has been taken over as an adjunct to The Courtyard and will be conducted along lines similar to that popular hotel, under the name of "The Wailana." The rooms have been newly furnished and the place renovated and will afford a desirable beach home to local people as well as to visitors to Honolulu. Parties wishing to spend a day at the beach may have a swim in the surf, lunch served and enjoy the privacy of a seaside home.

"DRY SPITTER" IS LATEST.

The "dry spitter" is the very latest thing in big league benders, and Rubie Evans, the Giants' southpaw recruit from Dallas, Tex., is the inventor. Evans throws the "dry spitter" in exactly the same manner that the regular spitball is delivered except that he does not moisten it. It takes a peculiar wobbling motion and jumps just as it gets to the batter. Instead of breaking into a right-handed batter, as in the case of the spitball, it takes an outward and upward jump that is very puzzling.

McGraw says he will try and teach it to Rubie Marquard.

FITZGERALD AND TWO SKATERS IN ERROR

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Mar. 7.—The race between James Fitzgerald, the Canadian marathon runner, and the skaters Weingarten and Richardson, was declared "no contest" last night owing to a mistake.

It was agreed that when there was one lap to go a pistol should be fired, and this was done, but Fitzgerald thought the report announced the finish and stopped running.

The skater and the runner each had a lap to go when the mistake occurred, so in all probability the skater would have won.

FORT STREET STRUCTURE TO BE FOUR STORY

The plans for the large building that is to be erected at the corner of Fort street and Chaplain lane by the C. M. Cooke Estate will probably be changed to some extent. The plans were originally for a three-story building with stores on the ground floor and apartments on the upper floors. On account of the great demand for rooms in the proposed building it has been decided to add another story to the plans, making it four stories.

PUNAHOU FIGURES FAVORITE IN TODAY'S MEETING

Sixty-two school athletes are included in the directory of entries for the interscholastic championships, in progress at Alexander Field this afternoon, but there have been a number of scratches, and only about 45 are actually taking part. Punahou has the largest team in the field, with Kamehameha second and High School trailing the procession in point of numbers.

The meet was scheduled to start at 2 o'clock, and, allowing for the usual delays, it will probably be well after 5 before the last event is decided. The program is well arranged, the order of competitions being such as to give all-round athletes the maximum rest possible between trials.

Some of the interscholastic records look pretty safe, while others may go to the wall as the result of this afternoon's performance. The 100, held by W. S. Rice, at 10 1-5, is unlikely to he touched. Hiramaka of High is hoped to win this, but the best he has done this season is 10 3-5. The mile mark, 4 min. 58 sec., has stood since 1907. Watt of Punahou is expected to come close to the 5-minute mark, and Jones, Kamehameha, is also a dangerous man. The 880, 2 min. 8 sec., may also go by the board. Timberlake (Oahu), Dwight (High) and J. Jones (Kam) being the dangerous men.

Today's meet closes the regular school season. Punahou should win, according to the figures, with Kam second and High third. What the proportionate pointage will be is questionable, and no one can give a guess with any certainty of accuracy, for the reason that seconds and thirds will be so split up as to make a big difference in the totals. Punahou has a fine all-round team, and has had the luck of the season, Kam and High, the former especially, having had man after man laid on the shelf.

MANOA AND EWA PRESIDENT'S GOLF TROPHY

Tennis cracks of the Manoa club will make the journey to Ewa tomorrow to meet the planter players in a series of double matches for the interclub championship. The invitation was accepted about two weeks ago, and the locals have been getting in some hard practice in preparation for the matches.

Six teams in all will represent the Manoa club, the pairings being as follows: Irvine and Steere, Greenwell and Readmore, McIntyre and Rietow, Graham and Bendle, von Damm and Schmidt, Jones and Lyser.

DOUBLE HEADER LOOKS CLASSY

There is a good baseball offering for tomorrow. Ewa will have a chance to see the famous All-Chinese team, that will leave for the Coast next week to spread the fame of Hawaii's Oriental players throughout the land, in action for the last time. The Chinese will come up against the Jackies from the California, and a good game is expected.

The other meeting of the scheduled double-header is between the All-Hawaii and the Colorados. Each team has won a game, and this will be the rubber.

Tomorrow's baseball will be played at Athletic Park instead of at Mollie.

This evening the benefit dance for the Chinese team takes place at the Young. From the present outlook, the attendance will be large, and there is every prospect of a rousing send-off to the local men.

LOCAL SKETCHES ON SHOW

The exhibit of painting and sketches of local scenery made by William Adam and placed on exhibition yesterday in the Kiloana Art League rooms attracted many to the place. There are a number of California views also on show with the local efforts. The exhibit was open this forenoon and will around-the-island excursion in our big sight-seeing car. Fare $3.50. *afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

There has been one change in the handicaps since the last play. T. Gill, who beat Colonel Boyed 8 up from scratch in the Roderick Cup competition last month, has been rated at plus 5 by the grounds committee. He is the only plus player in the club, Harold Giffard and George Angus at scratch, and Frank Armstrong at minus 2, being the other cracks.

Sunday, March 24, the Clysmic Cup will be played for on the local course.

WANTED

Eight more passengers to book with the Union-Pacific Transfer Co. for an around-the-island excursion in our big sight-seeing car. Fare $3.50. *afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.
